John Chase Deputy District Attorney 70 West Hedding Street San Jose, California 95110

Re: Grand Jury Investigation Regarding CCWs

Dear Mr. Chase:

A grand jury operates as part of the charging process of procedure, and its function is criminal viewed as investigatory, not adjudicatory, in nature. (People v. Brown (1999) 75 Cal.App.4th 916, 931-932.) In performing its investigatory function, the grand jury decides if a crime has been committed and whether there is probable cause to indict the accused. (Id. at p. 931; Cummiskey v. Superior Court (1992) 3 Cal.4th 1018, 1026.) Probable cause exists if there is a "`"strong suspicion"'" of guilt. (Cummiskey, at p. 1029, italics omitted.) The grand jury conducts its investigation in secret, without notice to or participation by the defendant. (People v. Superior Court (Mouchaourab) (2000) 78 Cal.App.4th 403, 414-415.) The district attorney may appear before the grand jury to give information or advice or to question witnesses. (Ibid.)

Although the prosecution participates in the grand jury proceedings, it is essential to the proper functioning of the grand jury system that the grand jury operate independently of the prosecution. (People v. Backus (1979) 23 Cal.3d 360, 392-393.) The grand jury is viewed "`as a protective bulwark standing solidly between the ordinary citizen and an overzealous prosecutor'" and its mission "`is to clear the innocent, no less than to bring to trial those who may be guilty.'" (Johnson v. Superior Court (1975) 15 Cal.3d 248, 253-254.)

To fulfill its protective role, the grand jury is authorized to order the production of exculpatory evidence "to the end that the citizen may be protected from the trouble, expense, and disgrace of being arraigned and tried in public on a criminal charge for which there is no sufficient cause." (Johnson, supra, 15 Cal.3d at pp. 253-254.) This authorization is codified in section 939.7 which provides that although the grand jury is not required to hear evidence in favor of the defendant, if it has reason to believe there is evidence that will "explain away the charge" it should order production of the evidence.

Section 939.7 states: "The grand jury is not required to hear evidence for the defendant, but it shall weigh all the evidence submitted to it, and when it has reason to believe that other evidence within its reach will explain away the charge, it shall order the evidence to be produced, and for that purpose may require the district attorney to issue process for the witnesses." (Emphasis added.)

The Legislature later codified this disclosure rule in section 939.71^1 . Section 939.71 provides that if the prosecution is aware of exculpatory evidence, it shall inform the grand jury of its nature and existence, and if the prosecution fails to comply with its disclosure duty and the Section 939.71 states: "(a) If the prosecutor is aware of exculpatory evidence, the prosecutor shall inform the grand jury of its nature and existence. Once the prosecutor has informed the grand jury of exculpatory evidence pursuant to this section, the prosecutor shall inform the grand jury of its duties under Section 939.7. If a failure to comply with the provisions of this section results in substantial prejudice, it shall be grounds for dismissal of the portion of the indictment related to that evidence. [1] (b) It is the intent of the Legislature by enacting this section to codify the holding in Johnson v. Superior Court, 15 Cal.3d 248, and to affirm the duties of the grand jury pursuant to Section 939.7." (Emphasis added.)

failure "results in substantial prejudice," the portions of the indictment related to the undisclosed evidence should be dismissed.

Taken together, sections 939.7 and 939.71 codify the interplay between the grand jury and the prosecution. Section 939.7 describes the grand jury's investigatory function, and section 939.71 affirmatively obligates the prosecution to facilitate the investigation. Because it is unlikely the grand jury will learn of exculpatory evidence if the prosecution does not bring the evidence to its attention (Johnson, supra, 15 Cal.3d at p. 255), the indictment is deemed invalid if the prosecution fails to comply with its statutory obligation before the grand jury and the omission causes "substantial prejudice."

The fact that my client donated Sharks tickets for the February 14, 2019 game and received the renewal of his CCW permit on February 13, 2019 is not relevant unless he acted with the specific intent that giving the ticket was a quid pro quo for receiving the CCW permit renewal.

Under the circumstances you are obligated to inform the grand jury that there is no direct evidence that my client, Harpreet Chadha, committed any of the crimes under Moreover, the circumstantial evidence that investigation. exists that he provided the Santa Clara County Sheriff's Advisory Board with tickets to a San Jose Sharks event on February 14, 2019 and that his CCW permit, that he has been issued since 2009, was renew on or about February 13, 2019 are subject to an interpretation that is innocent in nature. Given the two interpretations, you are obligated to inform the grand jury that they must adopt the interpretation that absolves my client.

Please inform the grand jury that before they can rely on circumstantial evidence to return a true bill, they must be convinced that the only reasonable conclusion support by the circumstantial evidence is that the defendant is culpable. If the grand jury can draw two or more reasonable conclusions from the circumstantial evidence and one of those reasonable conclusions points to his innocence and another to returning a true bill, the grand jury must accept the conclusion that points to Mr. Chadha not being culpable.

You must inform the grand jury of the qualities of his good character including the fact that he served in the Army of India, from August 21, 1993 to August 20, 1998, as a paratrooper, with distinction, retiring as a captain. Attached, marked Exhibit A is a document certify his service in the Indian Army. Moreover, he has never been arrested or charged with an offense. Additionally, he is held in high regard by respected members of the community. Finally, it is your duty to inform the grand jury that over the years my client has donated his suite at the Shark Tank to many organizations and charities over the years. Prominent among those groups is the California Highway Patrol.

You are also required to inform the grand jury that evidence of my client's character for honesty can by itself create such a doubt as to whether he committed the offenses under investigation, that a true bill should not be returned.

Please advise the grand jury of the information contained in the attached exhibits that reflect my client's unique generosity in donating tickets to Bing School (a full box on nine occasions), Synapse School (full box on eight occasions), The Preserve (a full box on eight occasions), Foundation for Hispanic Education (a full box on six occasions) and the California Highway Patrol. As well as donations to the benefit families of CIA agents.

Attached, marked Exhibit B is an Excel spreadsheet compilation of the donations of Shark Tank tickets. Please note that full boxes of tickets were donated to the CHP on at least five occasions.

Attached, marked Exhibit C is a brochure reflecting one of the occasions when my client donated the use of his condominium in Mexico for a CHP auctions (see page two of the brochure).

Attached, marked Exhibit D is a letter from Mike Elder who was the Northern California Coordinator for the CHP 11-99 Foundation from 1999 to 2013. Mr. Elder states that "Mr. Chadha neither asked for nor did he ever receive any benefit of any kind for his generosity . . . "

Attached, marked Exhibit E is a letter from Pack Fancher who is the CEO of Spookstock Foundation. Also attached, marked Exhibit F is a letter from Paul J. Toolan, Executive Director of Special Projects for The Spookstock Foundation.

Pack Fancher, the CEO of Spookstock Foundation states in his letter that Mr. Chadha has been one of their top fund raisers and has gone to great lengths to facilitate their fund raising efforts. He notes that Mr. Chadha has "done this selflessly and not to derive any benefit."

In his letter Lieutenant Colonel Toolan states that in personally donating to the cause of the Spookstock Foundation, Mr. Chadha and in supporting their programs both financially and materially, "[a]t no time has his benevolence been transactional, and in the entire time that [he] has know [Mr. Chadha] he has never asked for anything in return."

Attached, marked Exhibit G is a letter from Charlie Faas who is the Chief Financial Officer for San Jose State University. Prior to that he was the Chief Financial Officer for the San Jose Sharks. He was also the CEO of the USA Pavilion at the World's Fair in Milan, Italy in 2015. Mr. Chadha was a member of the Board of Directors of this entity that Mr. Faas states was the United State's number on diplomatic activity in 2015.

Attached, marked Exhibit H is a letter from John Poch who is the Executive Director of the San Jose Sports Authority. Mr. Poch has know Harpreet Chadha for fifteen years and believes that he is a man of integrity and honesty.

Attached, marked Exhibit I-1 is a letter from Stanley McChrystal, General (Ret.) and attached as Exhibit I-2 is his profile. General McChrystal is of the opinion that Mr. Chadha is an "honest individual that [he] judge[s] to possess integrity, loyalty and an exemplary moral character."

Attached, marked Exhibit J is a letter from Major Gorki Chandola (Retd.). Mr. Chandola has known my client since his early days in the Indian Army (1993) and is of the opinion that Harpreet Chadha was an outstanding officer "with [the] highest level of integrity and honesty."

Attached, marked Exhibit K is a letter from Captain Daniel Fillion, United States Navy who is Chief, Office of Defense Cooperation, U.S. Embassy, New Delhi, India. Captain Fillion notes that Mr. Chadha has taken a personal interest, with an altruistic motivation, in bolstering the relationship between the United States and Indian defense establishment.

Attached, marked Exhibit L-1 is a letter from Joseph H. Felter, Ph.D. who was formerly an Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense. Attached, marked Exhibit L-2 is a copy of his profile. Dr. Felter states, in his letter, that Harpreet Chadha has "unquestionable integrity." Moreover, he sets forth that Mr. Chadha has offered unqualified assistance building the United States-India relationship and that Harpreet's motivation to help is entirely selfless and based on his commitment to supporting causes that benefit United States national security interests.

To the extent necessary, I will provide assistance in facilitating the attendance of the above referenced witness or other related witnesses.

The allegations that my client was involved in a "conspiracy to commit bribery" (your letter to me dated October 22, 2020) are without substance. The only way that a conscientious grand jury may return a true bill against my client is if the prosecution interferes with the grand jury's independent investigatory function.

While the grand jury is expected to act independently and prevent unwarranted prosecutions, it must rely on the prosecution to present the evidence.

Since the prosecution is statutorily required to inform the grand jury of the existence of material exculpatory evidence, if the prosecution fails to comply with its mandatory disclosure duty and the prosecutions failure undermines the grand jury's ability to perform an independent investigation, as it would here, this would be a significant indication that the disclosure suppression corrupted the grand jury's findings. (Berardi v. Superior Court (2007) 149 Cal.App.4th 476, 494.)

The truth is that Harpreet Chadha is a patriotic American citizen who vigorously supports our institutions. He has a long history of supporting the military and law enforcement. He has never sought nor received any benefit for his devotion to these institutions.

Very truly yours,

Mayou le. Juckion

Mr. John S. Chase Deputy District Attorney 70 West Hedding Street San Jose, CA 95110

Dear Mr. Chase,

When I was the Northern California Coordinator for the CHP 11-99 Foundation from 1999-2013, I had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Harpreet Chadha and coming to know him as a friend and supporting member over many years prior to my retirement in 2013. Mr. Chadha generously donated many items to support our efforts in raising funds for CHP families when facing a death or other crisis, and for scholarships for their children. In working with him I always found him to be a true gentleman of excellent integrity.

His donations over the years often included suite tickets to SJ Sharks games and SJ Arena concerts, as well as corporate sponsorships, all to support the success of our golf tournaments and other events and raffles and auctions. For at least five years he donated a week each year at his beautiful ocean front home in Mexico as a wonderful prize supporting the 11-99's annual Winner's Choice Car Drawing fund raiser. In addition he was generous in introducing his friends and clients to our efforts.

In those many years, please know Mr. Chadha neither asked for nor did he ever receive any benefit of any kind for his generosity, other than donation receipts the foundation provides to all donors for the value of their donations to 11-99 fund raising events. By so doing Mr. Chadha only reinforced my high regard for the level of his person and integrity.

Sincerely,

Mike Elder

Re: Harpreet Chadha

Mr. Chase,

Spookstock Foundation is a 501c3 tax exempt organization (Tax ID #: 47-1018783). To check our bona fides go to www.spookstock.org/about.

Spookstock's mission is to raise donations and awareness for the families of fallen Special Operations and CIA personnel. At present there are over 1,000 children aged 0 to college age in the pipeline. To date Spookstock has donated $3.6 million dollars toward the post-high school education of these children, entirely funding 162 college years.

Harpreet Chadha has been one of our top fundraisers, connecting our foundation to entrepreneurs and VCs in the Bay Area. He has gone to great lengths to facilitate our fundraising efforts, introducing us to CEOs and other ultra-high net worth individuals. He is done this selflessly and not to derive any benefit.

Harpreet is a man of action and a man of his word. We are delighted to send this letter of recommendation to you.

Warm regard

John S. Chase Deputy District Attorney 70 West Hedding Street San Jose, CA 95110

Dear Mr. Chase,

I am writing to provide my unequivocal endorsement of the character, patriotism, and citizenry of Mr. Harpreet Chadha.

I am the Executive Director of Special Projects for the Spookstock Foundation. The Spookstock Foundation is a 501(c)3 non-profit that provides education funding, mentoring, and career placement to the children of United States Special Operations warriors and CIA Officers killed in action.

I first met Mr. Chadha when he participated in an immersive Special Operations Experience hosted by the Spookstock Foundation. Because of his service in the Indian Army Special Forces, Mr. Chadha and I immediately found common ground. I was struck by his unapologetic patriotism and genuine love of America, and impressed by his story of success from humble beginnings.

Over the last eight months Harpreet has been instrumental in recruiting patrons for the Spookstock Foundation. On two occasions he hosted us at his home, offering both lodging and introductions to potential donors. He has personally donated to our cause and supported our programs both financially and materially. At no time has his benevolence ever been transactional, and in the entire time I've known him he has never asked for anything in return. I have never felt compromised or indebted as a result of his generosity.

I am happy to discuss my relationship with Harpreet, and his history with The Spookstock Foundation at any time, and can be reached at paul.toolan@gmail.com and 910-578-4430.

Dear Mr. Chase,

I have known Mr. Harpreet Chadha and his wonderful family for over seventeen years. What initially started as a business relationship has blossomed into a strong personal friendship. It has been my absolute pleasure having Mr. Chadha and his family interact with my family and our growing circle of mutual friends.

I first met Mr. Chadha when I was the Chief Financial Officer with the San Jose Sharks. One of his business ventures was a new sponsor for the team. Those initial conversations gradually turned into a deeper business partnership. Mr. Chadha's entity started providing the healthcare and retirement benefits for the Sharks Organization. At his recommendation, he re-invested his profits into purchasing a penthouse suite for SAP Center games and events. I left the Sharks organization in 2013, but Mr. Chadha still remains deeply involved with the Sharks. Both have enjoyed many successes together.

After leaving the Sharks, I was the CEO for the USA Pavilion at the World's Fair held in Milan Italy in 2015. Our team was sanctioned by the Obama White House. Mr. Chadha was on the Board of Directors for this entity that the United States Government's proclaimed was their number one diplomacy activity of 2015.

For the past four years, I am serving as the CFO for San Jose State University. Mr. Chadha and I remain long term friends.

Lastly, I am an Eagle Scout, as is my son (daughter earned the Girl Scout's Gold Award). The twelve points of the Boy Scout Law, that have guided me and my family, come to mind when I think of who I choose to be friends with.

Trustworthy, Loyal, Helpful, Friendly, Courteous, Kind, Obedient, Cheerful, Thrifty, Brave, Clean and Reverent.

Mr. Chadha is a complete gentleman and everyone who I have had the pleasure to introduce him to, remembers him fondly... without exception.

Sincerely, DocuSigned by: Inarlie Faas harlie Faas

Mr. Chase,

I am writing this letter on behalf of Mr. Harpreet Chadha in support to his exceptional character.

I have known Mr. Harpreet Chadha for approximately 15+ years from his role in supporting the non-profit community through the work of his organization, the Legacy Resources Group.

I have found Mr. Chadha to be a man of integrity and honesty. He is a community-minded individual who regularly puts the needs of others before his own – best evident through his involvement in supporting numerous non-profit organizations in Santa Clara County. He has led by example for the employees of Legacy Resources Group; both professionally and personally, on the need to support their community by providing their time and resources to serve the non-profit sector as volunteer board members.

Having served as a non-profit Executive Director in Santa Clara County since 2001, I have worked with many volunteer board members over the years, but few have shown the kindness, patience, determination and generosity as Mr. Chadha. He has always remained enthusiastic, humble and honest to our organization and has been terrific in connecting our work with his business network. Both Mr. Chadha and his staff have made a tremendous impact to our community through their ongoing support of our non-profit agencies.

Please do not hesitate to reach out to me if I can be of any further assistance in regards to Mr. Chadha.

Sincerely

John Poch Executive Director 408-288-2935

Dear Mr. Chase,

I have known Captain Harpreet Chadha for several years, both professionally and personally. On the basis of all our interactions, I have found Captain Chadha to be a hardworking, tenacious, honest individual that I judge to possess integrity, loyalty and an exemplary moral character. He is a natural leader and a wonderful influence in the community.

He invited me to serve on the board of Rhombus Power (an Artificial Intelligence firm with tremendous potential for National Intelligence). He has since helped Rhombus expand the board of the company with well known high ranking military leaders and has helped expand the outreach of the company with the various intelligence agencies.

I have met with him and his family on several occasions and found him to be a devoted father and a family man. He has an impressive ability to connect with people and create win-win opportunities for both sides and has created business and employment opportunities for so many people in a short span of time.

From all I've seen, Harpreet bears a strong moral character and is highly dedicated and patriotic.

Respectfully,

Chur ter Stanley A. McChrystal

The Honorable Mr. John Chase Deputy District Attorney County of Santa Clara Office of the District Attorney County Government Center, West Wing San Jose, California 95110

Dear Mr. Chase,

I would like to provide my strongest endorsement of the personal character of Mr. Harjweet Chadha, a citizen of your wonderful county.

I have come to know Harpreet since my time being posted here in India as the Chief of our Embassy's Office of Defense Cooperation in 2018. Our main focus here is increasing the interoperability and mutual trust and understanding between the military forces of the United States and the Government of India. As a former military officer himself, Harpreet has taken personal interest in bolstering the relationship between our defense establishments. His motives are altruistic as he seeks to strengthen the linkages between the United States and our Major Defense Partner, India.

I can truly say that, even in my substantive encounters with him, Harpreet embodies all the characteristics of a responsible citizen. Although the bulk of our interactions have been on the professional level, my wife (who is also a California citizen) and I consider him a friend. I would advocate on his behalf when it came to any endeavor he would seek to undertake as he has my unwavering trust and confidence

Should there be any questions about anything I have written here or a need for further insights, please reach out directly at fillionde@state.gov, or +91 11-2419-8290.

Very Respectfully

John Chase Deputy District Attorney 70 West Hedding Street San Jose, California 95110

Dear Mr. Chase,

I am writing to provide my wholehearted endorsement of Captain Harpreet Chadha and to vouch for his impeccable character, integrity, and patriotism. He is a consummate gentleman and professional with unquestionable integrity. I feel fortunate to call him a friend.

I first met Harpreet in 2017 while serving as US Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense with responsibility for advancing America's defense and security relationship across the Indo Pacific region to include South Asia, Southeast Asia and the Pacific Islands. A mutual acquaintance of ours, Brigadier General Bucky Butow, the senior military officer in the Defense Innovation Unit, introduced me to Harpreet as a potential resource for supporting my Defense team's mission. Building the US-India relationship was and remains a major priority for the Department of Defense and entire US government. Harpreet was quick to offer his unqualified assistance and to leverage his vast networks within India and the US to help advance some or our main effort initiatives. Importantly, Harpreet's motivation to help was and remains entirely selfless and based on his commitment to supporting causes that benefit US national security interests.

When I transitioned from government service last year, Harpreet remained a valuable source of insight and advice in my work with a newly established National Security Task Force at Stanford's Hoover Institution. Harpreet also connected me with a cutting-edge AI company (Rhombus Power) that I now advise. Rhombus demonstrates significant potential to advance our broader national security interests by empowering predictive intelligence and other capabilities both within the US government and among our closest allies and partners abroad.

Prior to arriving at Stanford, I served a 24-year career as a U.S. Army Special Forces officer with diverse operational assignments and multiple combat tours. As part of my responsibilities leading and commanding numerous military units, as well as serving as a senior defense department official, I was required to assess and evaluate the character, loyalty, trustworthiness and many other qualities of many hundreds of men and women and to assess their potential to be trusted in challenging and often dangerous situations. With this background, I can confidently attest that Harpreet possesses the qualities and characteristics that we look for when entrusting our citizens with the highest positions of responsibility.

Respectfully,
